INDEX TO VOLUME XXXII.

Admirable Suggestions for Teachers, 399.
Advice to Youth: Cheery Wisdom, Hopefulness, 185.
Aim of a School Journal—E. E. Higbee, 33.
American Bands of Mercy: Nearly 60,000 Members—Geo. T. Angell, 179.
Bad Light for the Eyes, 332.
Bands of Mercy: Kindness to Animals—O. C. McCulloch, 133.
Beautiful in Nature, Art, and Life—A. Winchell, 3.
Bible Reading—C. H. Hall, 248.
Book Notices, 160, 197, 234, 271, 306, 343, 377, 451.
Books to be Avoided—H. Sabin, 436.
Botany, The Teaching of—J. M. Coulter, 435.
Brief Questions for School Room, 250.
Character: Formation of, in School Room, 389, 419.
Character: Voice and Manner of the Teacher, 327.
Charles Lamb, Story of: At Dinner with Rogers, 220.
Common People, The, 177.
Common Schools Now and Sixty Years Ago: Stern Arraignment of To-day—Rev. H. N. Hudson, 39.
Contents of Children's Minds: Interesting Results of Recent Examination of Young Children in Boston—G. Stanley Hall, 163.
Convention of Superintendents at Williamsport, 57.
Correct Speech: Common Errors in Language, 210.
County Superintendency, 408.
Criticisms on Modern Methods—Sarah Burns, 114.
Culture Derived from Science—Isaac Sharpless, 104.
Dead Languages—D. W. Thompson, 425.
Defective Eyesight: Causes of Near-sightedness, 312.
Defects in Graded Schools—T. M. Balliet, 109.
Devices in the School Room, 439.
Dictionary, Use of: False Ideas Often Acquired—Mrs. J. M. Lord, 276.
During Study Hour: Little Ones Employed, 291.
EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT:
July—Programme of State Teachers' Association, 29. Handwork—Hampton School, 30. Literature for Blind, 31. Discipline—Modern Fiction, 32. Aim of a School Journal, 33. The Road to Learning, 33. August—The Demon Cry of "Hurry On!" 72. Recent Convention of County, City and Borough Superintendents at Williamsport, 72. Soldiers' Orphan Schools: Report of Joint Committee, 73. School Legislation at Recent Session of State Legislature, 75. October—Teachers' Institutes, 149. Children's Minds, 150. Immortality—Genius of Labor—Intoxicating Drink, 152. Meetings at Williamsport, 153. Two Pleasant Letters, 155. The Drawing Exhibit, 156. November—Public School and Normal School, 187. Contents of Children's Minds, 187. Plea for Home Study: Chautauqua L. and S. Circle and Ladies' Study-at-Home Society, 190. Pastorius Bi-Centennial: Teutonic Race, 192—Lake Erie Water Supply, 193. December—Temperance Instruction in Michigan—Knowledge, the Essential Thing—Showing of the Census, 223. Federal Aid to Education—Russian Story, 224. Office of Music in the School, 225. Science Teaching: Child Lessons in Nature for the School-Room, 226. Supervision in Lancaster, 228. New Time Standard: All Clocks in the United States Should Now Strike at Same Moment, 229. Martin Luther, 230. January—Some Statistics from Annual Report of State Superintendent—Education and Temperament—State Supt. Newell on Graded Country Schools, 258. Familiar Science in Schools, 260. February—Pestalozzi—"Reading" of Working Drawings, 293. Girard College—Happiness in School—Indian Girls at Lincoln Institution, 294—Monument to the Founders, 295. The Boy and His Education, 298. Soldiers' Orphan Schools: Statistics, Reports of Examiners and Inspectors, 299. March—Women as School Directors—Boy of Twelve—Temperance Legislation—State Association—Apaches at Carlisle, 328. Thoughts for Teachers—Mere Material Prosperity—Bible in the Schools—"It Pays to be Clean," 330. Annual Report—Grand Work of N. Y. Children's Aid Society—Growth of Child's Mind, 331. Superintendents at Washington—Bad Light for the Eyes, 332—Salaries of Teachers, 333. Does Parsing Pay? 336. April—State Teachers' Association at Meadville, 365. Three Languages in English—Look "with Lantern in Hand," 366. Teachers Wanted—By Whom Recommended—Advice to Students—More Rational Methods—School Room Walls—Trees on School Grounds, 367. Paternity of the Bill—Good Manners, etc.—Graduation in Country Schools—District Superintendency, 368. Practical Problems—Triennial Election of County, City, and Borough Superintendents, 369. Examinations in Philadelphia, 370. Music in the Family, 371. May—State Teachers' Association—Work Doing in Philadelphia—Planting Fruit Trees, 403. Vaccination Required—Child Accustomed to Books, 404. National Association and Its Educational Exposition, 404. Governor Pattison—The "New" Education, 405. Only One Vote, 406. A New Biological School, 407. County Superintendency, 408. June—State Association, 440. Result of Recent Election of Superintendents, 444. Language Lessons, 445. Closer Supervision, 446.
Education Demanded by Times—G. W. Atherton, 92.
Education: Manhood vs. Book Knowledge, 47.
Educational Experiments: Leland and Camp, 281.
Educational Journals—E. E. White, 273.
Effect of Alcohol on Heart, 251.
English Literature in the Schools, 438.
Examinations in Philadelphia, 370.
Examinations in Pittsburgh—G. J. Luckey, 23.
Examination Questions, 145, 226.
Examination Test at Millersville, 55.
False Showing of Illiteracy: Facts vs. Fancies—Ellis A. Apgar, 358.
Father Perkins' Herbarium, 426.
Favorite Books, 139.
Feminine Use of Adjectives, 439.
Formation of Character in School Room—H. Callenwood, No. I, 389; No. II, 419.
Fifty Years Ago: Reminiscences of Boston Schools, 48.
Free Evening Schools, 157.
Friday Afternoon Exercises, 247.
Gentleness, The Pressure of—D. W. Thompson, 429.
Genuine Teachers, 114.
German Influence: Address at Bi-Centennial, 182.
Gleanings from My Journal, 397.
Good Behavior, 135.
Good Books for a Boy—Thackeray, Goldsmith, Carlyle, White, Smiles, 181.
Graduation in Country Schools—N. O. Wilhelm, 289.
Greek Language for Schools—J. W. Phelps, 222.
Hidden Strength: Story of a Devoted Mother, 395.
Home and School: Foundation Principles, 401.
Horace Mann: Sketch of our Foremost Educator—W. F. Phelps, 26.
How a State Superintendent Can Best Advance Popular Education: Address before Department of Superintendence—E. E. Higbee, 379.
How to Talk—Geo. H. Martin, 180.
How to Teach Literature—Esther J. Trimble, 432.
How to Treat Books: Suggestions and Directions—Duane Doty, 178.
Indian Problem—R. H. Pratt, 417.
Industrial Arts in Public Schools—R. M. Streeter, 65.
Immortality—R. W. Emerson, 121.
Importance of Method: How Knowledge is Gained, 12.
Insect Lives: or Born in Prison—Julia P. Ballard, 131, 173, 245, 320, 387.
Institute Instructors: Practical Suggestions, 142.
Instruction vs. Education—J. D. Steele, 219.
In the Evenings: Give the Boys a Chance, 397.
Items from Reports, 34, 76, 158, 194, 231, 268, 303, 339, 373, 449.
"Joe Blankster," 144.
Keep the Children Happy, 145.
Labor as an Educator—B. G. Northrop, 436.

Lawyer, Doctor, Preacher, Teacher, 326.
Libraries in City Schools—R. K. Buehrle, 61.
Literature of Teaching: Books and Periodicals—Ann Sharpless, 385.
Local and County Institutes—J. W. Harvey, 57.
Making the Programme: Studies and Times of Recitation, 356.
Martin Luther, 230.
Massachusetts' Experiment in Education—Charles Barnard, 201.
Michigan State Public School—Mary Allen West, 903.
Monument to the Founders, 295.
Morality in Public Schools: Christianity its True Basis—Geo. F. Mull, 206.
Morality in Public Schools: Great Text-Book, 402.
Music in School—E. E. Higbee, 225.
Music in the Family—E. E. Higbee, 371.
MUSIC PAGES—"Never Say Fail," 38. "Battle Hymn of the Republic," 80. "Sound Our Voices Long and Sweet," 124. "Come, Cheerful Companions," 162. "Leaves Around Me Falling," "Oft in Danger, Oft in Woe," 200. "Row, Row, Cheerly Row," 236. "Shells of Ocean," 272. "Over There," 308. "The Summer Days are Coming," 344. "I've Been Roaming," 378. "The Blue Alsatian Mountains," 410. "The Miller of the Dee," 452.
Nature's Way: "Words too Much, Things too Little," 319.
New Methods: Supplementary Reading, 257.
New Time Standard, 229.
No Recesses: Certain Objections Answered, 315.
Normal Schools and their Defects—A. N. Raub, 97.
Not too Intense: Prodigies in Primary Schools, 24.
Not Trustworthy: Moral for Boys, 253.
Novel Reading—Robert Collyer, 325.
Obituary Notice; A. T. Douthett, 301.
Office of School Director and Duty of School Boards: "The Great and Ruling Administrative Feature."—Thos. H. Burrowes, 237.
OFFICIAL DEPARTMENT—Superintendents Commissioned, 34. New Law as to Permanent Certificates—Superintendents Commissioned—Permanent Certificates, 76. Permanent Certificates Granted—Resignation of Superintendent, 194. Free Evening Schools—Recent Act of Legislature—Superintendent Commissioned, 157, 231. Forty-ninth Annual Report of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction: An Essential Factor in the Well-Being of the State—Industrial Education—Adverse Criticism as to Results of Common School Training—Labor Dignified—Polytechnic Schools—Teacher's Brief Tenure of Position; Immense Loss of Power—Influence of the School-Home—School Architecture—Process of Nationalization in the Common Schools, etc., 262. Report of Superintendent of Soldiers' Orphan Schools—Legislation Extending the Period of these Schools until 1890, 302. Election of Superintendents—Oath of Office—City and Borough Superintendents—Filing of Objections, 372. Examinations at the Soldiers' Orphan Schools—Duty of School Boards Publishing Annual Statement, 409. Organization of School Boards, 447. School Officers, List of Superintendents, 448.
Our Public Schools: Importance of their Work—Chas. H. Shinn, 316.
Ourselves and Our Neighbors, 129.
Outside of School Hours—Margaret Hoffman, 215.
Parsing: Does it Pay?—Geo. S. Jones, 336.
Pennsylvania County Institutes—John Ogden, 286.
Pennsylvania Teacher in South America—J. P. Wickersham, 289.
PHENOMENA OF PLANT LIFE—Structure of Flowers, No. IV. 18. Flowerless Plants, No. V. 44. Fruits and Autumnal Days, No. VI. 136. No. VII. The Oak—Leo H. Grindon, 210.
Plea for Home Study, 190.
Principles and Philosophy of Teaching, 118.
Prohibition in India—M. L. Holbrook, 172.
Questioning, The Art of: Concise, Pointed, Interesting—J. P. Wood, 54.
Random Notes in Music, 15, 52.
Reading in the Public Schools—M. F. Boice, 94.
Recitation Hearing, 130.
Reform the Spelling Book—George S. Jones, 140.
Remedies of Nature: Air, Light and Sleep, 383.
Results of Education, 128.
Road to Learning, 33.
Salaries of Teachers, 333.
School Books: Impressions on Mind and Heart, 253.
School Compositions: Facts and Fancies of the Pupil Himself, 185.
School Legislation, 75.
School-Room Decoration: Plants, Hanging Baskets, 21
School Rules: For Public Schools of a District, 275.
Science Teaching, 226, 260.
Scientific Temperance in Public Schools, 107.
Self-Cultnre, 135.
Socrates Muddles Euthydemus, 364.
Soldiers' Orphan Schools, 296.
Standard of Utility: Degree of Intellectual Development, 251.
State Superintendent, Forty-ninth Annual Report, 262.
STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION — Proceedings of Twenty-Ninth Annual Session, 81. Addresses of Welcome—S. Transeau, C. S. Riddell, and Mayor Parsons, 81. Response to Address of Welcome—Henry Houck, 83. Inaugural Address: The Training of the Will—N. C. Schaeffer, 83. In Memoriam: Tribute to Miss G. C. Robertson—Mary J. Carr, 87. The Situation and its Requirements—James MacAlister, 91. Education Demanded by the Times—Geo. W. Atherton, 92. Reading in the Public Schools—M. Frances Boice, 94. Our Normal Schools and Their Defects—A. N. Raub, 97. Discussion of the Normal School Question, 100. Exhibition by Indian Pupils from Carlisle, and Wand Drill, 103. The Culture to be Derived from Science—Isaac Sharpless, 104. Scientific Temperance in Public Schools—Narcissa E. White, 107. Defects in System of Graded Schools—T. M. Balliet, 109. Criticisms on Modern Methods—Sarah Burns, 114. Supplementary Reading: Means of Mental Culture—Geo. J. Luckey, 116. Principles and Philosophy of Teaching—J. D. Moffat, 118. The Next Step: Children not in the Schools—J. P. Wickersham, 119. Address: The Teacher—"Don't Hurry"—Normal Schools—E. E. Higbee, 120. List of Members (450) in Attendance at Williamsport, 122.
Story for Boys and Girls: Station Room Incident, 284.
Straws and Flaws: Country vs. Town, 10.
Study of the Classics: Lord Chief Justice Coleridge at Yale College, 285.
Suggestions on Composition—A. N. Raub, 426.
Superintendency: Let Good Men be Retained, 365.
Supervision of Schools: Practical Thoughts, 362.
Supplementary Reading—Geo. J. Luckey, 116.
Swiss Educational Congress: Foreign Association, 27.
Teaching Pupils How to Use Books: Cleveland Methods, etc., 254.
Teachers' Reading: Giving Color to His Work—Mary A. West, 50.
Teaching Reading—F. W. Parker, 146.
The Boy and His Education, 298.
The Church and the School, 221.
The Great King: Allegory from an Old Author, 278.
The Next Step—J. P. Wickersham, 118.
The Past Year: Outcome of the Teacher's Work, 21.
The Teacher's Lot: Some of its Amenities and Tribulations, 176.
Thorough Education a National Defence, 416.
Through the Children: Influence of the Christian Teacher—Annie A. Preston, 353.
Tom Found His Manners, 136.
Training and Care of the Eye—Francis J. Stein, 324.
Training of the Will—N. C. Schaeffer, 83.
Triennial Election of School Superintendents: Expression of Opinion from State Superintendents Thos. H. Burrowes, H. C. Hickok, Chas. R. Coburn, and J. P. Wickersham, 345.
Two Teachers: Essential Difference in Quality, 283.
Uncommon Proceeding: Story with a Moral, 355.
Use of Tobacco by Boys, 130.
Verbal Stumbling Blocks: New York Method, 25.
"Wanted—A Boy," 217.
What is the Best Method?—Ada B. White, 394.
Wholesome Atmosphere: In Schools and Homes—Theo. L. Cuyler, 142.